Hi! I'm your coach, Chal Knox.

With over 25 years of international leadership, teaching, and coaching experience across the corporate and non-profit worlds—including personal experience as a CEO—my passion is empowering others to serve with integrity, compassion, and grit. Through coaching, leading workshops, and facilitating strategic planning retreats, I help organizations and leaders from the C-suite to the frontline achieve high performance in professional growth, financial success, and character development. Fluent in Spanish, I have also led and coached extensively across Latin American cultures.

What to expect from me.

I'm committed to providing you the following:

- Situational coaching (personal & professional)
- Lead Every Day Academy content
- Encouragement & Accountability
- Regular check-ins
- Accessibility
- Workshops & Trainings as needed

What I expect from you.

In order to make the most of our work together I'll need you to commit to:

Before each call:

- Completing monthly action items
- Completing Lead Every Day Academy videos (if applicable)

Generally speaking:

- Prioritize our time and schedule with me proactively
- I value your time and celebrate going "further, faster"
